

At-a-Glance

Comprehensive Protection Plan

The Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) provides death, long-term disability and other survivor benefits for you and your family. The plan is administered by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits of The United Methodist Church.

Generally, you are eligible to participate in CPP if your conference or salary-paying unit sponsors the plan and you satisfy the eligibility requirements which include full-time episcopal appointment and plan compensation equal to or greater than 60% of the Denominational Average Compensation or the Conference Average Compensation, whichever is less. There may be special arrangements for other individuals. Other eligibility rules may apply.

Plan Features

- Benefits are payable upon the death of an active or retired participant, his or her spouse or surviving spouse, and his or her children under age of 19. Benefits also may be payable for a child over the age of 19 if the child was disabled prior to age 19, or if the child was receiving a surviving child educational benefit.
- Supplemental benefits for surviving spouses may be available upon the death of an active participant.
- Educational benefits for surviving children may be available upon the death of an active or retired participant.
- Comprehensive disability benefits include:
 - monthly benefit payments,
 - annual increases,
 - continued retirement contributions,
 - rehabilitation and vocational services, and
 - assistance with application for Social Security disability benefits.
- For additional information, please review the CPP summary plan description.

GENERAL BOARD OF PENSION AND HEALTH BENEFITS
OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Caring For Those Who Serve